

NHA Membership Has Been Discontinued

Effective July 14, 2026, NHA Membership is no longer available for purchase.

If you enrolled in NHA Membership before July 14, 2026, your membership will continue to be supported according to the terms of your existing subscription. During your eligible membership period, you will continue to receive the benefits included with your plan, including access to applicable Plan Benefits and, if eligible, your Free Recertification benefit.

No new NHA Membership subscriptions are being sold, and once a legacy NHA Membership ends or is canceled, it cannot be purchased again.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I purchase an NHA Membership?

No. Effective July 14, 2026, NHA Membership is no longer available for new purchase.

Can I upgrade or downgrade my legacy NHA Membership?

Existing (legacy) NHA members may continue to upgrade or downgrade their current membership. However, once an NHA Membership is canceled, it cannot be re-purchased.

Can I renew my legacy NHA Membership?

No. Legacy NHA Memberships are not renewable beyond the support period described above. Once your membership expires or is canceled, it cannot be reinstated or repurchased.

Will I continue to receive my membership benefits?

Yes. Existing legacy members will continue receiving the benefits included with their membership for the remainder of their eligible subscription period, subject to the Membership Terms and Conditions.

What happens to my Free Recertification benefit?

If you qualify for the Free Recertification benefit under your legacy membership, NHA will continue to honor that benefit in accordance with your membership terms.

What replaces NHA Membership?

Beginning July 14, 2026, NHA introduced NHA One™, an all-in-one certification maintenance plan for eligible NHA-certified professionals. Unlike the former Membership subscription, NHA One™ is integrated into the certification experience for eligible professionals and provides ongoing certification maintenance, continuing education, and professional development resources.

Where can I learn more about NHA One™?

Visit the NHA One™ product page at nhanow.com/nhaone to learn about eligibility, benefits, and how the certification maintenance plan works.
